Identification Policy

For admission, your photo ID must:

- Be a valid (unexpired) photo identification that is government issued or issued by the school that you currently attend.
 - Be an original document (not photocopied).
 - List your full, legal name exactly as it appears on your ticket, including the order of the names.
 - Show a recent photo of you that matches both your appearance on test day and the photo on this ticket.
 - Be in good condition, with readable English text, and a clearly visible photograph.
- Note: A U.S. Global Entry identification card is acceptable.

Test coordinators will match their roster with your ticket, ID, and appearance.

Test Day Checklist

Remember to eat breakfast before you arrive.

What to Bring

- Your printed admission ticket. Tickets on a cellphone won't be accepted.
- Acceptable photo ID.
- Two No. 2 pencils with erasers.
- An acceptable calculator (Subject Test in Mathematics only).

Nice to Have

- A watch (without an audible alarm).
- Extra batteries and backup equipment in case they're needed (only use with permission).
- A drink or snacks (for your break).
- A bag for your belongings.

What Not to Bring

- Electronic equipment including phones of any kind, personal computing devices, wearable technology, cameras, timers, audio players/recorders, smartwatches, or any other devices that can be used to send, receive, or record information.
- Any highlighters, rulers, earplugs, dictionaries or other books, pens or mechanical or colored pencils, pamphlets, or papers of any kind, including scratch paper.

If You Bring or Use Prohibited Devices

You'll need to turn off all electronic devices during the test and even during breaks. This includes cellphones. Be sure to turn off your watch alarm, if you have one.

The testing staff will collect and hold phones and other prohibited electronic devices during the test administration. They can deny admission to anyone who is in possession of a prohibited electronic device.

If your device makes noise (even if it has been collected) or you are seen with it at any time, including during breaks, you will be dismissed immediately, your scores will be canceled, and the device may be confiscated and its contents inspected. The College Board is not responsible for loss or damage to personal items, including electronic devices, while you are in the test center.

Refund Policy

If you decide to cancel your test registration, you can request a partial refund of $10 no later than 5 days before the test date you registered for. You are also entitled to a refund for any score reporting services you ordered for a test date you missed. Call customer service for assistance.

ID Policy Exceptions

Follow these identification requirements if they apply to you:

Eighth grade or below: If you are in the eighth grade or below and testing for Talent Search purposes, a valid Talent Search ID Form is acceptable however, you must present some form of ID.

21 or older: If you will be 21 or older on test day, the only acceptable form of identification is an official government-issued photo ID, such as a driver's license or passport. Student ID cards are not valid.

Testing in Ghana, Nepal, Nigeria, and Pakistan: The only acceptable form of identification is a valid passport.

Testing in India: The only acceptable forms of identification are a valid Aadhaar card with your name and photograph or a valid passport.

Testing in Egypt, Jordan, Korea, Thailand, United Arab Emirates, and Vietnam: The only acceptable forms of identification are a valid passport or valid national ID card from the country in which you are testing. If you travel to another country to test, you must provide a passport as identification.

Changes to Test Type

You may be able to take SAT Subject Tests™ other than those listed on the front of this ticket, but only if the proper materials are available at the test center. If you add one or more tests, you'll be billed for the additional test fees. You can drop, but not change/add, a Language with Listening Test on test day.

Changing, adding, or removing SAT Subject Tests is the only change to your ticket information that can be made on test day.

Registration Corrections

You won't be able to take the test if the information on your ticket doesn't exactly match the test center attendance roster. If you make corrections, print a new ticket for test day.
